

Vita

CapCat Ragu is an artist and feminist with a background on Painting and Art Studies, born in 1975 at Oporto, Portugal.

She was a member of the artistic association Caldeira 213 and the feminist artistic collective ZOiNA, having participated in the creation and organization of several artistic activities since 1999.

Has exhibited collectively since 1997 and individually since 2005.

Has been teaching Visual Arts at Escola Superior de Educação do Instituto Politécnico de Viseu since 2007.

Since 2008 has devoted her artistic activity to the Metaverse, working individually and collaboratively in the Second Life virtual environment, where she held several solo exhibitions and collaborated with artists from different fields and nationalities.

Together with Meilo Minotaur she is the builder of the Second Life project "de Maria, de Mariana, de Madalena " at Delicatessen, developed for the fifth edition of the Real Life exhibition "All My Independent Women".